

East Coast Academy of Feng Shui

The East Coast Academy of Feng Shui Practitioner Certification

Training Program is designed to give the student a solid foundation in Feng Shui principles for both residences and business. We feature a hands-on approach with an emphasis on cultivating your ability to feel and move energy in physical environments. Classes are kept small to allow for a personalized learning experience. The program incorporates a combination of lectures and practicum 's designed to give the student real-life situations within the support of a class-room setting.

This program is designed to accommodate students who have full home and work lives. Enrollment is limited, and classes fill up quickly. We encourage you to reserve your place as soon as possible.

Spring 2010 Schedule of Events

Four Day Certification Program

Thursday-Sunday

Ft. Lauderdale, FL

March 18th - March 21st

April 22nd - April 25th

Orlando, FL

April 15th - April 18th

South New Jersey

May 13th - May 16th

Central New Jersey

June 24th - June 27th

Two Weekend Session Certification Program

Saturday and Sunday

Ft. Lauderdale, FL

March 6th - March 7th

March 13th - March 14th

May 22nd - May 23rd

May 29th - May 30th

Evening Session Scheduled

Check website for detail

P.O. Box 6084
Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33310
Office 888-272-7094
Mobile 954-609-2584
michelle@ecafs.net

www.ecafs.net

Students at the East Coast Academy of Feng Shui will explore the ancient roots of this great art and science, using an easy to understand curriculum. You will learn the secrets of how these principles can be applied specifically and personally to direct the positive flow of energy into your life and the lives of your clients. The East Coast Academy of Feng Shui offers the essence of this ancient art with a Western interpretation that is easy to understand and apply... a beautiful blend of East and West. Many professions will benefit from this program, including Interior and Landscape Designers, Facilities and Space Planners, Architects, Realtors, Professional Organizers, Contractors, Massage Therapists, Holistic Health Professionals, stay-at-home mom 's ... anyone wanting to enhance or change their life or career by awakening their natural sense of art, harmony, and balance. This program is designed to bring forth your inner artist and enhance your present career...or guide you to your next!

East Coast Academy of Feng Shui

Tuition

The tuition for the training program is $1500, $1300 with early-enrollment discount. A registration fee of a $150 is due at the time of registration to be submitted with application. The remainder is due in full 10 days before class begins. If you would like to be eligible for the early-enrollment discount, tuition in full is due 30 days prior to your starting class date you will receive a $200 discount. A "Bring a Friend" discount of $200 will be given to anyone who enrolls a friend to do the training at the same time ($100 per person). MasterCard and Visa, Discover and American Express are accepted. Classes are kept small for a personalized learning experience and fill up quickly. Participants who want to insure a place in a later training program are encouraged to pay the registration deposit of $150 right away to hold their place for a future program.

Cancellation Policy

Refund of the registration fee or tuition will not be given for the training programs if a student has to cancel. If a student finds they have a conflict with the date after they have enrolled in the program, or an emergency has come up, they may take the program at any other available date or location or transfer it to someone else. However, if the class has to be canceled for some reason, the student will receive a full refund.

Requirements

Once a student has completed the training program and successfully completed the homework assignments, they will be awarded a Feng Shui Practitioner Certification from the East Coast Academy of Feng Shui.

Class Syllabus

Day One

Introduction to Feng Shui
Yin and Yang
Yin and Yang Practicum
Group Break-Out Sessions
The Five Elements
Applying the Five Elements to Environments
Five Elements Practicum
Group Break-Out Sessions
Bringing Nature into the Home and Workplace

Day Two

The Bagua Map
How to Apply the Bagua Map to Floor Plans
Feng Shui for Residences
Feng Shui Room by Room
Practicum - Group Break-Out Sessions
Applying the Bagua to Real-Life Situations
(Please bring a floor plan of your own home to class, along with a paragraph about you and what you are experiencing in your life. Each student will receive an in-class Feng Shui Consultation for their own home.)

Day Three

Feng Shui for Businesses
Feng Shui for Landscapes
Feng Shui Splinters
Feng Shui Chi Enhancers

Day Four

Space Clearing
Being a Feng Shui Consultant
Practitioner 's Code of Ethics
How to do a Feng Shui Consultation
Setting up Your Feng Shui Practice
Marketing Your Feng Shui Business

About Michelle

Under the direction of

Michelle Luongo, the East Coast Academy of Feng Shui offers the Feng Shui Practitioner Certification

Training Program and the Advanced Classical Compass Certification Training Program. A former graduate of the West Coast Academy of Feng Shui, Michelle translates this ancient art and philosophy into practical applications with our western perspective.. Michelle shares her unique combination of skills that create innovative, intuitive, and practical solutions to a multifaceted teachings and consulting. She enthusiastically balances her talent and passion for Feng Shui through her workshops, seminars, and publications. Michelle is recognized for blending real-life situations with Feng Shui knowledge that educates and motivates while offering real solutions on a wide range of projects. In addition, she brings over twenty-five years of successful corporate sales and marketing business talent to the mix. She is dedicated and passionate about her work and is honored to share her knowledge with students and clients.

888-272-7094

954-609-2584

michelle@ecafs.net

www.ecafs.net