

FENG SHUI PEACH BLOSSOM ROMANCE METHOD

By Fran Gleeson

In Feng Shui, there is a part of every home that is special for each occupant. Known as the Peach Blossom, this special part can attract a partner into your life when it is activated. In this article, I will explain how you can find and activate your personal Peach Blossom.

Please be careful to use it only to attract a new romantic partner - it is not a method to bring peace to troubled relationships that already exist. For that to happen, you would need to turn to the Flying Stars Feng Shui method, which can help smooth over troubled relationships, assuming that both partners want the same outcome. To use this method effectively, you need to know your Earthly Branch or the Chinese animal character for your day of birth by using the Four Pillars Chinese Astrological technique. You are looking for a particular direction in your home known as the Peach Blossom Romance Direction to place a specific attractor there. This Earthly Branch Day Animal can be found by visiting this link: Four Pillars Calculator

When the chart appears, enter your year, month and day of birth, and your gender. Do not worry about the other details such as place, longitude and hour of birth. We only need your Day Animal found in the Day column. Click compute.

Your Day Animal will not necessarily be the same as your year Chinese Animal, which is what most of us know about ourselves. Chinese Astrology is very complex and involves more than one animal in our charts. Note the Chinese Animal of your Day and then check the table at the bottom of this page to determine the location for the activator.

To attract a male partner, use a green spherical vase filled with white flowers.
To attract a female partner, use a white spherical vase filled with red flowers.

Make sure the vase you use is spherical (round), not cylindrical, and use the right color combination of fresh flowers and vase to match your preferred partner. Once you have worked out your Earthly Branch Day Animal, simply place the vase and flowers within one of the four sectors of your home as indicated in the following table.

Locating this sector can be a bit tricky. You will need to have a compass and know where the gravitational centre point of your home is. Then simply place the vase and flowers anywhere within the 30 degree portion indicated for you below in the Peach Blossom Location Finder.
